General Comment

if two people enter an agreement, and said agreement don't not aggress on others, why do you feel you have the right to have any control over the two parties? I think you need to step back, take a look at your actions, job, and agency, and ask yourself what drives your profession. Is it simply that you're just helping people, or is it you have a psychological bent to control. Congrats, you are now controlling your peers' retirement accounts. Sleep well...
